Common Sense

Akira Kurosawa didn't precisely intend to re-imagine King Lear here - he was inspired by a real slice of Japanese history - but the results were much the same. But life is bustling here, its folk lost in it like a bright kermes, a fair that leaves hearts full; and here they are poor, but out for fun this evening; defenceless but empowered, the myth for them reborn... But having in my heart the consciousness of those who know how history is the mover will pure passion ever move me again when I know that our history is .
