And now about your journey. I've gotten deep in meditation before, but with the guidance of Lucy's words and energy, I took my meditation beyond what I can explain in text. William was at that time only about twenty-four years old, but he took the direction of every thing-moved to and fro with the utmost celerity-planned the campaigns-directed the sieges, and by his personal accomplishments and his bravery, he won all hearts, and was the subject of every body's praises.
