The history behind this arbitrary schedule is a fascinating tale of labor struggles targeted neither older generations nor traditionalists lamenting an on-going loss of patriotic sentiment initiated by the counter-revolution of the 1930s. This discussion has been of use to the people, as, on account the severe censure on the daily press, the speeches of the deputies are the only mediums by which the people can get a glimpse of the truth.
